FOREWORD

As the years roll by
May these pages recall
The Dear Glad Days of Rossford High
And may it bring back
Those pleasant thoughts,
Memories- -of joys and sorrows.
And may they remain as happy ones
To cherish, grow, and live, forever.

CLASS HISTORY

Four years ago there appeared in Rossford High School a group of eager Freshmen, 101 strong. These Freshmen were eager to start high school life and began working eagerly. Many Freshmen went out for football and basketball and gave a good account of themselves, although there were no letters given out. This Freshman class was the largest yet, and big things were expected of them. Mr. Gibson and Mr. Woodring were Home Room teachers. The following officers ruled the class this time: President, Benny Schultz; Vice-President, Margaret Saunders; and Secretary-Treasurer, Margaret Kruger.

At the beginning of the Sophomore year the class had shrunk a bit, but it had lost none of its eagerness to do things. Miss Lacy, Mr. Troutner, and Mr. Gibson were home room teachers. They started off with a bang by electing the following persons: President, Benny Schultz; Vice-President, Earl Fitzgerald; Secretary, Mary Kohanska; and Treasurer, Helen Koseski.

In football, Earl Fitzgerald and Ralph Heinrichs earned their letters, while many others gave a good account of themselves on the practice field. John Martin and Earl Fitzgerald also were on the Varsity Basketball squad. The Sophomore Strut was a great success as a dance, but it was a financial loss. The Sophomore boys won the interclass basketball tournament.

Seventy-two members enrolled in the Junior Class, the largest Junior Class in the history of the school. Officers of the Class were: President, Jerome Brooks; Vice-President, Benny Schultz; Secretary, Catherine Gould; and Treasurer, Margaret Saunders. Home Room teachers were: Miss Kibler and Mr. Burns.

Fitzgerald, Heinrich, M. Andryc, A. Andryc, Schultz, Martin, and Almestir earned letters in football, while Martin, Durco, and Fitzgerald earned basketball letters. The Junior play was a success with Miss Raviolo directing. The name of the play was "Girl Shy." The cast included the following: Jack Kelly, Joe Knurek, Margaret Kruger, Esther Sabo, Benny Schultz, Lewis Frautschi, Hope Cashman, Dorothy Sarver, Mary Dancik, Beatrice McCaslin, Jerome Brooks, and Andrew Andryc.

The class was well represented in the Band, Orchestra, and Glee Clubs. Andrew Andryc, Dorothy Sarver, Margaret Kruger, and Margaret Saunders were elected to the National Honor Society. The Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the Maumee River Yacht Club, and it was a great success.

The class of 1934 rounded out as the best class Rossford ever had, barring none. The football and basketball teams were composed mainly of Seniors, and two championships were won. The members of the Keyhole were mainly Seniors, and the Maroon and Gray was published by Seniors only. The Senior Prom was given on February 10 and it was a huge success. Fifty-six seniors will graduate this year.

CLASS PROPHECY

The other day as I went to shop in an exclusive place on Bacon Street, whom should I run into but Hope Cashman?

"Why, Hope dear, where have you been for the last 25 years?" asked I.

"Ah, me! It has been nigh unto 24 years since I have seen you," she answered.

"How about going to a show with me? Then, we can go and get something to eat," I said again.

As you know, Hope was very fond of eating and readily agreed. We decided to go to the Pire Em Show, and you'd never guess who the proprietor was. Nick Johnson. He told us that he had quite a few people there on 5c nights, and that he had a janitor who was kind enough to stay until the finish of the play. Guess who the janitor was? No, you're wrong. It was Victor Reed. Anna Kalman was the usher and there were rumors of her marrying Victor. We wonder. That week the Pire Em Show had featured the well-known Singtooflat Brothers, and to our surprise it was composed of Walter Gacik, Charles Badik, and Joe Machala. As their whispering tenor they had Robert Corbin, who was never heard.

Next we decided to go and get something to eat. I said, "I'm starved, let's get a hot dog and then go to the Pommodore Curry Hotel." We stopped at a hot dog stand and the waiter, Victor Heineman, told us they were no longer called Hotdogs but "Bulldogs." So I said, "Well, give me a Bulldog." And was it only delicious?

Vic found out a lot of information about the class of '34 and here is what he told us:

Andrew Tadsen was working for the "U Got Me First" Insect Powder Company.

The "Fly No More" Flea Company had Dorothy Ferguson teaching the fleas to do burlesque shows for the Mosquitos. The "Waterproof Hose Company" had Mary Badik as a model, advertising "Run-around-a-lot" stockings.

"Did you hear that Mary Hegedus was still scaling fish in order to lose weight? She was working for the "I. M. Hooked" Fish Company. Helen Brown was their chemist and she made a startling discovery that Jelly Fish could be used to spread bread, and Alene Stricker was found taking baths with Sponge Fish. Margaret Saunders had been seen spooning fish 'cause she couldn't find Johnny to spoon with. Rose Gezo and Helen Koseski were experimenting—trying to find out how closely Bullheads were related to Human Beings.

Hope and I couldn't believe all that was told to us, and when Victor was finished, he had tears in his eyes. Next, we thought we would leave the Fish alone and go over to the Pommodore and eat. Who should be the Footman? Nobody but Mike Andryc. I had always said Mike had good under-standing, and that his feet would get him somewhere in life. We took the elevator up and you can imagine our surprise when we saw Jack Kelly operating the elevator. Hope told me she thought some day Jack would get up in the world and now he was. (Up in the fifth story.) The sweet little waitress, Esther Sabo, had found out some information about the rest of the class. Here it is:

A "rinky dink" Circus was organized so Esther decided to take us over to visit the rest of our class mates. As we entered the gates I heard a familiar voice calling, "Come and see the one and only Oriental dancer from the foreign town of Rossford. Her grace and ease admired by all the world. The true Mary Kohanska." The man in the high silk hat and evening suit was the Master of Ceremonies and husband of the dancing lady and guess who he was? Dear Old Benny Adams Schultz. When he saw us, tears came to his eyes and he hurried to tell M. K. we were here.

I saw Anna Platek and Julius Kovarik coming with their Dog Flea Show and when they saw us their fleas even laughed.

Mary K. came out and kissed me and told me how much she had missed me. She had grown more beautiful and lovely. Our attention was attracted to Joe Knurek, Lewis Appt, Nick Bobak and Benny Piotrowski, who were trying to make the elephant sit down. Joe was manicuring its nails and Lewis was making funny faces at it. Nick Bobak was a clown and had taken an ice cream cone away from a little kid, and Benny P. had scared a kid into fits by just looking natural. Hedwig Tutak was trying to creep under the Circus tent, but when she saw us she fainted—embarrassing moments. We brought her to and soon we were again one happy couple. Thelma Tomas and Paul Kaczor had been married 22 years and even Paul's "Floyd Gibbons talk" could not get the last word. Lewis Frautschi was the water boy, and you've probably heard that he married the fattest women of the world, Barbara Radocy. Clarence Fredrick turned out to be the walking skeleton and every time he moved it sounded like two skeletons dancing on a tin roof. Emil Pavlica and Laura Tarkiewicz had been married and Laura was telling us she didn't realize how in love she was with Emil, until one night she saw his Herculean figure in the moonlight—serenading her. Emil had been studying music in Slime City and his teacher, Mr. Doebler, said he was a very rare specimen. (No, he wasn't half baked, but there weren't many like him.)

We heard the strains of Charlotte Mierjewski's violin playing "Ah, Sweet Misery of Life" for the monkey audience to dance to. Jerome Brooks, we learned, had turned out to be the Tarzan of the Circus and his wife, Margaret Golbinec, was also a lady of the trapeze Mrs. Chester McCready (the former Dorothy Sarver) was operating a beauty shop called "The New Wrinkle." Earl Fitzgerald and Joe Durco had an Insurance Company called the "Shuredeath." You know Earl married Anna Baker and Joe had married that dazzling blonde, Helen Cieply.

Helen Radocy ran an "Old People's Home" on Spinach Avenue for all above 111 years old. "Eat plenty of Vegetables and you live long," was their motto, but at present they had only two occupants, Irene Stvartak, 130 years old, and Bea McCaslin, who was 134 years old. Did you know that as soon as Bea left school she married Red Emmick, and that Veronica Romp and Catherine Gampher had committed suicide over the fact? Too bad, wasn't it?

Mary Dancik, we were informed, was a surgeon in the "We-slic-em" Hospital. Mary claimed she didn't know what "depression" was. Her business sure was expanding. Clement Cervenec was operating a "Pullyourgum" Dentistry.

Esther finished and said, "I'm so glad they are all living so happily." Just then I heard a crash and woke up to find myself lying on the davenport and dreaming about the future.

FRESHMAN CLASS

OFFICERS

President.... .....Phyllis Schwenning
Vice-Pres..... ... .Joe Sohasky
Secretary..... ... .Helen Martonak
Treasurer ....Frank Yando
Advisors: Mr. Kohler, Miss Sweet, Mr. Steininger.

A group of Freshmen, 89 strong, have become attached to the high school. Though small and inexperienced, their school spirit made them in demand in many of the school's activities.

Several boys went out for football this year. Although only "Shrimp" Kovach succeeded in making his letter, the other boys promised to be bright prospects in the future years.

In basketball, Joe Wac displayed some excellent playing on the Lightweight team. The Freshmen didn't have much of a chance this year, but the future will depend on them. Here's luck to you!

The following boys played in the Inter-class Tournament on the Frosh team: Alexander Beloff, Stanley Bilski, Leo Heinemann, Joseph Sohaski, Frank Kaczor, John Kovach, William Pawlecki, and Charles Watson.

The girls' team won the championship. Those playing were: Lucille Blausey, Rosaline Denko, Julia Emmick, Dorothy Gercak, Sophia Ish, Molly Kelly, Henrietta Rysz, Phyllis Schwenning, and Veronica Vishi.

The increased membership in the music department consisted of quite a few Freshmen. The following answered the Glee Club roll call: Frances Ballard, Marilyn Ballard, Lucille Blausey, Ruth Coffman, Jeanette Davis, Margaret Duricek, Luella Eckhart, Pauline Fredrick, Mary Krasula, Harry Samiec, Robert Sizemore, and Virgil Tadsen.

The band members are: Frances Ballard, Stanley Bilski, Tony Hloznik, Frank Mozucha, Joe Seman, Robert Sizemore, and Virgil Tadsen.

The orchestra boasts of the following members: Harry Samiec, and Molly Kelly.

The Freshmen, filled with boundless enthusiasm, sponsored a dance, The Freshman Frolic, on April 7th. It was a huge success. The following were chairmen of their respective committees: Virgil Tadsen, Program; Robert Sizemore, Advertising; and Molly Kelly, Decorating.

The Keyhole, our school paper, was organized the second week of September. At first it was edited and published by the Senior Class, but due to a little extra talent in the Junior Class a few members of that class were chosen on the staff.

The paper turned out to be a financial success, largely because it was mimeographed instead of printed. It was published every two weeks during the first semester, and every three weeks during the second semester.

In giving this paper to the coming Senior Class, we wish them the best of financial and literary success, and hope they will make the paper one of the leading parts of their school life.

Student Council

President.....Margaret Saunders
Vice-President.....Earl Fitzgerald
Sec-Treasurer.....Emil Pavlica
Sergeant-at-arms.....Tom Rinker

The student council is one of the very worthy organizations of our school. It gives the students a chance to have a part in the government of the school. Each class chooses from its membership, three persons who, because of scholarship and service, are eligible to do this work. Mr. Doebler is the advisor, and, together they have accomplished much during the council's short existence. We hope that in the future the Student Council will be equally as good and efficient as the ones we have had in the past in order to carry on the greater problems of school life which will come up.

Senior Members: Earl Fitzgerald, Emil Pavlica, and Margaret Saunders
Junior Members: Arnold Frautschi, Marcella Hirsch, and Tom Rinker.

The purpose of the French Club is to enable the students of French in this school to appreciate, not only the language itself, but to make them become more familiar with the country of France, its history, customs, and form of government. With such a background the French Student is able to get more out of his French and it also enables him to be more interested in it. In order to convey these things to the members reports are given at the meetings. French songs are sung and French games are played.

FOOTBALL

Another successful football season has slipped away. Just as a reminder a short story of the games will be given.

The Bulldogs won their first real football Championship in the history of the High School.

Starting the season off with the powerful Toledo Champs, Waite, we were defeated after a hard-fought game, 34-6. For three quarters the game was fought on even terms, but in the last quarter the Indians broke through the defense of the Rossford team by sheer strength and weight.

The second game was with Fostoria. A little too much erratic playing cost them their second game of the season—a 7-6 defeat. Rossford led Fostoria up to the last couple minutes of play when a final spurt put their opponents out in front.

The Bulldogs opened the League play by defeating Whitmer to the tune of 27-7. It was a well-played game with all the boys showing up well.

Their next League victim was Maumee. The Bulldogs proceeded to hand them a spanking which registered 54 points for the Bulldogs and nothing for the Maumeeans. Bill Smith received a fractured leg on the opening kick-off.

The big Red Wave swept on, leaving disaster in its wake. Sylvania was the recipient of a walloping this time, losing 58-0. How's your ankle, Fitz?

The most joyful occasion of all was now upon us. Those terrifying red-clad warriors of Coach Mollenkopf crushed the Yellow Jackets of Perrysburg, 66-0. Some fun, eh, fellas?

On a beautiful Thanksgiving Day, the Bulldogs and the Cardinals of Point Place waged the Championship battle in the Rossford Bowl. Our boys copped the coveted trophy by sending the Cardinals down to a 27-0 defeat.

And so ends the story of football at Rossford High School during the 1933 season. To the departing Senior members of the squad we wish them luck and success in their future undertakings, and hope they will play the game of life as fairly and squarely as any football game they've ever played.

To our friend and Coach, Mr. Mollenkopf—to his aides, Mr. Henline, Mr. Gibson and Mr. Philbin—the team wishes you success in your future work; and——we'll be seein' ya.

FOOTBALL PERSONALS

Benny Schultz—Co-Captain.

Benny was always in the game, fighting till the last minute of play. An excellent blocker, Benny was also a good defensive player.

Benny Piotrowski—End.

Benny's last year at Rossford. He was a capable substitute to be used to fill the places of almost any man on the line.

John Martin—End.

"Spiders'" specialty was pulling down sky-high passes, but he could stop plays around his end for no gain at times.

Earl Fitzgerald—Half Back. Co-Captain.

The speed merchant of the team. Earl could be depended upon for a ground gaining dash at all times. He will be missed next year.

Clement Cervenec—Guard.

In his first and last year for the school, Kelly showed he had the goods to make a first class guard.

Mike Andryc—Center.

Mike was always on the spot when a play headed for the center of the line. Ever alert and dependable, he was a fine teammate.

Joe Durco—Half Back.

Another of Rossford's powerful charging halfbacks gone but not forgotten; his work will be long remembered. Joe is a powerful charging halfback, on his off tackle plays, and is a real sport.

Joe Losonsky—Full Back.

Chubs was our triple threat man. He could pass, kick, and run with the ball equally well and he backed up the line remarkably well. Has another year.

Louis Appt—End.

Lotsey specialized in spoiling the enemies' plays but could be depended upon to block and catch passes whenever needed.

Tom Rinker—Tackle.

Tommy used his weight to a good advantage. The opponents hit a stone wall when they tried to pass him. The Rossford backs found large holes in the line when Rinker got going. Another year.

Walter Gacik—Tackle.

A big man, Waldo could generally be seen bowling over the opponents. An excellent defensive man. Waldo will be hard to replace next year.

FOOTBALL PERSONALS

Schultz—Manager.

Wants to do more than his share of work. Honest and acts like a manager should.

Red Andryc—Tackle.

"Red" was without experience when he started but has developed nicely. He will see much use next year.

Paul Bohaczenko—Half Back.

Paul provided a good substitute and was a good, dependable player. Lots of luck next year.

Jack Kelly—Guard.

Jack came out late but was getting along nicely at the end of the year.

John Kovack—Half Back.

Shrimp developed into a fast, sturdy halfback. He can run the ends or hit the line equally well. Much will be expected of him next year.

Fat Folcik—Tackle.

"Fat" came along nicely and with the experience gained is expected to take Gacik's place next year. Good luck.

William Anderson—Guard.

Willie showed up well in practice and turned out to be a capable substitute at guard. Small but powerful with a habit of getting into the middle of the opponents' plays—more power to you next year.

O. V. Ramsey—End.

O. V. came out and worked hard for a chance. He is a good end and will get his chance.

John Ozanski—End.

John was showing extremely well at end when sickness laid him low. He will be depended upon to do much in the future.

Frank Jendryc—Center.

Jend is a small, powerful player. Didn't have very much action till he came to play center. Jend is a man that every player can depend upon at games. Only a sophomore but let's see you go the next two years, Jend. Here's luck.

William Smith—Center.

Smitty started to show his real value by playing a fine brand of ball when an injury put him out for the rest of the season. With another year to go, Smitty should be a good asset to the team.

Walter Zuchowski—Quarter Back.

Shorty came to the team without experience but rounded into shape nicely and proved himself to be a real player.

Zdybek—Manager.

Alert, always pleases both coach and team. P. N. A. will serve this school one more year.

Fat Andryc—Guard.

Andy's last year for Rossford. He came in handy as a "Sub" for the regular guards.

Joe Lasonsky Forward

Chubs consistently played a fine game at forward. He could be depended upon to score points from any angle. More power to you next year.

Joe Durco Guard Captain

Joe was an excellent defensive guard, full of pep and fight. His good work will be missed.

George Wolfe Coach

This year Mr. Wolfe kept up his brilliant coaching record in basketball by having the first undefeated basketball team in Rossford High School. The boys believe in you, Mr. Wolfe, and hope your team will do the best to attain this honor, and we wish the best of luck.

John Martin Center

Spider was the mainstay of Rossford's fine zone defence. His height and reach aided him a great deal in knocking down passes and shots. A man hard to replace.

Earl Fitzgerald Guard

Earl's fine work at the guard positon both defensively and offensively will be hard to replace. Earl, cheerful and full of pep, always did his share.

Tom Rinker Forward

Tom proved himself a good basketball player by his fine work all season. Striving for team work Tom was a valuable man in the offense.

BASKETBALL

Frank Jendrich Forward

"Yend" is an excellent shot and handles the ball well. Only a sophomore he should develop into an excellent player.

Walter Coffman Center

"Mush" in his first year on the squad showed real promise. Big and willing to work he should help the team in the future.

Jack Kelly Manager

Jack did his share by sacrificing his time for the good of the team; always willing and ready to help.

Stanley Wrucha

All "Rudy" needs to make the grade is more experience. He should turn out to be a valuable guard on the team next year

Benny Schultz Guard

Benny was always full of pep and whenever he got into the game played a high class of ball.

Frank Klepacz

"Fran" is a hard working forward. He handles the ball nicely and with a little more experience he should turn out to be a real player.

BASKETBALL

Rossford High School has experienced the most successful basketball season in the history of the school, setting a record for the school of fourteen straight wins, and one of the few class A teams in the state to go through the season undefeated. Here's how it happened:

The Bulldogs started their league play in grand style, defeating the Point Place cagers 21-10. They were a little shaky in the first half and for a while, but soon got away to a good start and were never headed. The lightweights lost a close game to the Point Place Reserves.

The second game was with Toledo Libbey, who thought they had easy pickings that night. But unlike their previous game, the Bulldogs soon convinced the Libbey lads that they had underestimated our strength, for we administered to them a 32-17 lacing. The Lightweights gave the same dose to the "little" Cowboys.

Whitmer was our next league rival. It was an exciting game even though the playing was ragged. The Bulldogs led 16-14 at the half, but came back and put the game on ice, 24-18, our favor. Lightweights again won.

Back on our home floor we next faced Burnham High from Sylvania. We easily took the newcomers into camp with another league game tucked safely away, 34-14.

With a packed house of yelling, howling maniacs we next defeated our old rival, Perrysburg, to the tune of 33-8. Our battling Lightweights again won.

We next "journeyed" across the river to meet another league rival—Maumee. The Varsity again showed its power, handing the Maumeeans a 27-13 defeat. The Lightweights won a hard-fought game from the Maumee Reserves.

North Baltimore, usually a tough combination to run into, was the next in line. A very poor start by the Bulldogs made the first half a close battle. Coming back in the last half we went on to victory, 33-11. Lightweights won.

Our next trip was to Dayton to play Kiser High of that city. With about a dozen home fans and half of Dayton rooting for us, we took the down-state boys for a 29-18 ride.

A tough game again with Whitmer on our floor was our next offering to the fans. We came out on top again, though the score was closer, 27-20. Lightweights won again.

After taking care of Whitmer we thought we'd have an easy time again with Maumee. But not so. Ragged playing and Maumee's ability to sink those important foul shots, enabled us to eke out a 21-18 victory. It was another exciter. Lightweights won.

Another game with Sylvania put the Bulldogs back into their stride. Their powerful scoring machine crushed the Wild Cats, 43-22. The sterling Lightweights again won.

Our next game was at Point Place. There we played our first overtime period of the season. At the end of the regular playing time the score was 17-17. Both teams went into overtime play determined to win. The Bulldogs got to clicking and when the final whistle blew we were on the long end of a 21-17 score. Our sterling Lightweights also won.

The following Saturday night the Adrian, Michigan, boys paid us a visit. Although showing themselves capable of handling the ball well, the Bulldogs were too much for them, taking the game 26-12. The Central L. W. were too much for our boys, winning easily.

At Perrysburg the boys found out just how much better they were than Perrysburg. Playing one of the worst games of the season they still came out ahead 21-11. The Lightweights also continued their winning streak, with Paul B. sinking them from all over the floor.

Our regular playing season now over, we turned to Tournament play. We drew St. John's of Toledo. The boys played hard. Another overtime period. Rossford missed a foul shot in that period. St. John's made theirs count. Result, St. John's 18, Rossford 17. A lot of disappointed people.

The Bulldogs enjoyed the most successful Basketball season ever had by a R. H. S. team. An unbeaten team is a rarity in any community and the Rossford followers should be proud of the team. They planned on going a little farther in the Tournament than they did, but they lost and there's nothing more to be said. They did the best they could at the time. Tribute to Wolfe!
